2026 Meetings & Events

Setting the Scene

Trilith Guesthouse is situated at the main entrance of the award-winning, European-inspired Town at Trilith in Fayetteville, Georgia, just minutes south of Atlanta. The 193-room Tribute Portfolio hotel is the first of its kind in the picturesque community which immerses storytellers, makers, and entrepreneurs in a world of possibility. Located near Atlanta's international airport, and among the wildflowers, forests, and farmlands of rural Georgia, it is a place designed by intention, where residents can live, work, and find fulfillment in every way. Home to Trilith Studios, a premier film and television studio in North America, it is the center of an expanding universe of visual storytelling for some of the biggest names in the industry. At the center of this vibrant community, Trilith Guesthouse provides an exclusive, curated space for open, spirited, and friendly socializing and creative collaboration, ideal for legendary meetings and events.

Fancy Meeting You Here

Carefully designed to inspire creativity, encourage spontaneity, and create endless opportunities for discovery, Trilith Guesthouse offers over 17,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor meeting and event space. From social gatherings to corporate meetings and fairytale weddings, the hotel sets the stage for success with gourmet catering and a cast of dedicated professionals to oversee every detail, ensuring a seamless and extraordinary experience.

The Main Stage Ballroom (3,432 sf) – Wall-to-ceiling arches invite guests into a grand foyer, where warm neutral walls are sprinkled with one-of-a-kind art pieces, leading the way into the hotel's largest meeting space. The ballroom, divisible by three, can accommodate up to 350 guests.

The Kitchen (936 sf) – This uniquely collaborative space provides a dramatic setting for private events or corporate team building, focusing on topics that have always brought people together: food, wine, art, and storytelling. Centered on a large kitchen island with a cooktop and hood, and framed by Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances, this innovative space feeds the hunger for knowledge and inspires groups to cook up new ideas.

The Gallery (678 sf) – Featuring ever-revolving displays of art curated by local talent, The Gallery offers flexible meeting space for up to 75 people and provides street-level access to the walkable town.

The Studio (635 sf) – This enchanting fifth-floor boardroom offers a unique blend of art and musical storytelling ideal for brainstorming, team meetings or intimate gatherings. Glass doors lead to an outdoor terrace where sweeping views await.

The Pavilion (4,000 sf) – Easily dressed up or down, The Pavilion provides a blank page for guests and planners to create their masterpiece. Surrounded by lush, vibrant landscaping and overlooking a lake, this outdoor venue can be used open-air or tented, making it ideal for year-round events.

Read the Room

The boutique hotel's 193 guest rooms and suites feature custom-designed elements, tailor-made furnishings, and warm natural tones to awaken the senses and stir imagination. Adorned with curated art pieces, each room features a designated workspace, relaxing lounge area, artisan pantry, plenty of storage, and a bathroom with rain shower, white quartz vanity, and oversized mirror.

Hotel accommodations include 36 one-bedroom suites and apartment-style residences, the latter featuring full kitchens with microwaves, full-sized refrigerators, and wine coolers. Suites are also equipped with washers and dryers, spacious living areas, separate bedrooms, and elegant bathrooms featuring white quartz top vanity, lighted mirror, and a rain shower complemented by polished chrome bath fixtures.

Page-Turning Amenities

Meeting planners and guests are invited to open the page to a world of discovery at Trilith Guesthouse, with multitudes of amenities at every turn. A signature, street-level restaurant, fifth-floor rooftop bar, and culinary studio feed the body and soul. Indoor and outdoor spaces span more than 17,000 eventful square feet. The pet-friendly hotel's trove of extras also includes:

- Concierge Services
- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- In-Room Dining
- Heated Outdoor Pool
- Fitness Center
- Valet Parking
- EV Charging Stations Nearby
- Hotel Bicycles

Stories to Savor

Dining at Trilith Guesthouse is an all-consuming, integral part of every story. The signature, street-level Prologue Dining & Drinks combines culinary creativity with a menu that pays tribute to the diverse tapestry of Southern heritage. Infused with locally sourced ingredients, the dishes celebrate the region's diverse flavors and traditions, creating a comforting yet sophisticated atmosphere that invites guests to savor the art of breaking bread together. Up on the fifth-floor rooftop, Oliver's Twist Bar & View puts a "twist" on Dickens' rags-to-riches classic, serving up whimsical cocktails and elevated pub fare with views of the Town at Trilith. For a more intimate, personalized option, the hotel staff can arrange a private dining experience to suit any occasion.
